BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards a Statement of Excise Inspectors who have not qualified themselves according to the G.O. of 1903 but were given promotions from time to time owing to their approved service and requests that they may be exempted from passing the prescribed examination being at least three years of passing at and having been employed in the Dept before ~~passing the aforesaid~~ issuing the said notifn

NOTES AND ORDERS.

One of the rules approved by Govt in 1903 was to the effect that the general rules prescribed for recruitment ~~not~~ in no wise affect the promotion of old Officials of approved service in the Dept

But in passing the rules for the local Service examinations in 1908 was considered that for admission into the Service a pass in certain subjects was considered necessary. The rules were considered by a Board and the file relating to this revision does not show whether the exemption contemplated in the notn of 1903 holds good even after the rules were revised in 1908

When quarterly lists of promotions recruitments were being examined some remarks were made either in the order removing them or in the notes relating thereto From these I may be gathered that promotions given to some Inspectors and appointments given in certain instances were considered contrary to rules In some instances it was expressly stated that rules certain Inspectors whose names are included in the number now given, were asked to duly qualify themselves pending which passes they would be debarred from further promotions

3 When the proposal to exempt Inspectors who had undergone training in the Training school from passing the Final service tests was before Govt in 1910 it was ordered that there was no good reason to alter the existing rule under which Inspectors were required to pass the Excise & Criminal (Lower) examinations

4 All the persons to whom exemption recommended have had training in the School so late as 1912, 1913 & 1914 ~~have appeared~~ promotions given to some of these Inspectors have not been approved by Govt in reviewing the Statements in which the names appeared

Noted on margin of p. 1

5 ~~There is also~~ only one instance (the case of Mr Cullen) exemption was granted and the case of the late Mr Rajendram Pillay there was some discussion regarding exemption from passing the tests owing to his long service and age In no other instance rule 10 of the notification of 1903 has been put into operation

6 In one or two instances it was suggested in the Office notes whether the rules of 1908 superseded the provisions of the notification of 1903 but nowhere a definite ruling is to be found As already stated the FD s of 1912 1913 & 1914 appear to contemplate no such exemption as proposed by the Excise Comm

7 It is not clear why some other names are omitted from the list though they appear to be nearing the age of exemption suggested by the Excise Comm and they have not passed the tests These are nos 2 (Page 6) 5 (Page 6 (Page 8) 5 (Page 16) 5 6 & 9 (Page 12) & (Page 14) of the gradation list No proposal has been made in regard to some Asst Inspectors of Inspectors who also come under the condition laid down in the paper under disposal to pass Exns and not to men who were young enough at that time but who may have got too old by now Eg & if an appeal had been entertained in the year 1900 ie ~~but~~ about three years before the introduction of these rules he could not such claim exemption on That there was the accepted View of Govt also clear by the fact that in the case of some of the men who are now recommended for Exemption Govt have expressly objected to the promotions given and declared that they were ineligible for further promotion until they passed the Exns Also the Excise Comr does not make any mention of these Govt orders in his present letter and is not clear how Govt can go behind orders already passed The Excise Com will have therefore to be informed that it was made clear in their G.O's that appeals would not get promotion until they passed the required Exns and Govt see no reason to give an exemption in their case or the case of others answering situated as now Suggested

Jc 1369 dated 16.9 Nos 8 & 10 in the list of the Excise Commr

There are similar cases in the case of others not included in the list ~~of~~ declaring promotions in their case as overpaid

10 A further reason why the present recommendation cannot be approved is that this will form a precedent for future application of a similar kind - which would necessarily impair the efficiency of the Dept There are other officials similarly circumstanced and it will not be long before applications in their case are also received if the present one sanctioned

SUBJECT.

the age suited for passing examinations and to state in reply as follows

The exemption contemplated in the order of 1903 is limited to Officials who were too old at the time to pass the prescribed examinations unlike the Officials now referred to The promotions granted to some of the latter are temporary and subject to the condition that they would be ineligible for further promotion until they fully qualify themselves by passing the prescribed examinations It would from all standpoints of near be inexpedient in the opinion of Govt to sanction the recommendation now before them
